PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE:

AS COMMUNITIES ACROSS AMERICA STRUGGLE WITH INADEQUATE BEHAVIORAL HEALTH POLICIES AND SERVICES, THERE ARE INSPIRING EXAMPLES OF DEMONSTRATED PROGRESS.

Join the conversation and learn from national thought leaders about successful evidence-based efforts at jail and emergency department diversion, treatment and follow-up care for at-risk and high-cost populations.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Leon Evans
Behavioral Health Consultant
& former CEO, Center for
Health Care Services,
San Antonio, TX

Evans helped conceive and implement the Crisis Care Center, a 24/7 psychiatric center at the heart of San Antonio's model of jail diversion and integration with a wide range of human services to help individuals and families struggling with behavioral health issues receive the help they need

Hon. Steven Leifman
Miami-Dade County Court
Judge and Behavioral Health
Advocate

Judge Leifman has served as Special Advisor on Criminal Justice and Mental Health for the Supreme Court of Florida since 2007. For 20 years he has supervised the 11th Judicial Circuit Criminal Mental Health Project, aimed at diverting individuals with behavioral health issues who might end up in the criminal justice system into treatment programs.

Danna Mauch, Ph.D.
President and CEO,
MA Association for
Mental Health

Dr. Mauch brings extensive organizational leadership, operations management, evaluation research and strategic thinking practices gained from her experience in the public and private sectors. Her advocacy work is focused on practical problem-solving.

Co-chairs of the Middlesex County Restoration Center Commission at the forefront of Behavioral Health and Criminal Justice reform.

Peter Koutoujian
Sheriff, Middlesex County MA

Sheriff Koutoujian has earned a national reputation for his tireless efforts to promote innovation and professional excellence in public safety. Through his leadership, Middlesex County is one of three national pilot locations for the Arnold Venture's Data Driven Justice Initiative.

Exciting program and presenters, even more special guests still to come!
